CROOK'S FUNERAL.

The Remains Interred in the Cemetery at Oakland, Md.

CUMBERLAND, Md., March 24.—The funeral of the late Major General George Crook, who died in the Grand Pacific hotel in Chicago on last Friday morning, took place in Oakland this afternoon at 2 o'clock.
Last night the representatives from the different states began to arrive this morning at 10 o'clock the register of the Glades hotel, owned by Mrs. Crook's father, bore the names of many distinguished soldiers of the army and the many civilians. The day was a beautiful spring day but the town bore a mournful appearance, flags at half mast and the principal buildings and stores were draped in mourning and at the hour of the funeral all places of business were closed in honor and reverence of the dead chief.

Promptly at 2 o'clock train No. 6 on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad pulled in the picturesque depot, having attached to it the funeral cars and a language car containing the remains and the other a baggage car.
The train was heavily draped in mourning.
When the train came to a standstill at Oakland, D. & H. Post No. 24, had taken their place on the south side of the train and with open ranks and uncovered heads acted as an honor guard. When the remains were taken from the train they were placed on a temporary catafalque and an opportunity was given to all present to view the remains. Fully one thousand persons availed themselves of the opportunity, after which the remains were placed in the hearse and the funeral procession slowly wound its way to the quaint old cemetery known as Old Fol-low's cemetery on Quality hill.

The casket, a handsome metallic one, covered with army blue cloth, and studded with gold mounted handles, was placed in the grave which was prepared for its reception. The pall bearers were the grand sons, Fort Sheridan and the late general's staff, and Messrs. J. H. Fox, George H.
Johnson and James Messon and Dr. E. H.
Barrett acted as honorary pall bearers.

At the grave Rev. E. R. Moffitt, of the First Presbyterian church of this city, was assisted by Rev. Dr. Bolton, of Baltimore, Md. The services were conducted in the most impressive manner. The burial service, in connection with which Dr. Moffitt read a passage of scripture, at the close of which Rev. Moffitt offered prayer.
After Dr. Moffitt's prayer Rev. Dr. Bolton pronounced the benediction and all that remained of the dead chief was left to moulder in the little cemetery on the hill.

SERVICES OVER SCHENCK'S REMAINS.
WASHINGTON, March 24.—Funeral services over the remains of General Robert C. Schenck were held at 2 o'clock this morning at his residence. One of the relatives of the dead man and a large number of the friends were present. The Rev. Dr. Douglas, pastor of St. John's Episcopal church, conducted the services. The Rev. Dr. Schenck's three daughters and his nephew, Woodward Schenck, left Washington over the Pennsylvania for New York, where they are expected to arrive at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The interment will take place at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Bishop Lomen, formerly rector of St. John's Episcopal church, conducting the ceremonies.

ALIEN LABOR INQUIRY.

An Amendment to the Law Necessary to Prevent Further Trouble.

New York, March 24.—When the members of the joint committee of the United States senate and house appointed to look into immigration matters got back to their hotel on Saturday, after visiting a building, they found a waiting immigration commissioner Stephen waiting for them with the information that he would have a big host of immigrants down at the Ellis island early this morning for them to inspect.

The committee picked out four immigrants from the list of the Ellis island and sent them to the little room in the center of the building, where they were put through a rigorous examination.
They were Hungarians, bound for Michigan, where they had a promise of work in a mine at $1.20 a day. Relatives and friends already at work had written to them, they said, and had assured them that the boss would give them all a job at that price.

Senators Chandler, Pettibone and Foster, and Representatives Chas-ter, Stanger and Sergeant-General Hamilton, Solicitor Hepburn, Commissioner Folger and Commissioner of Immigration John H. Wiley met at 10 o'clock. Both Senators Chandler and Foster came to the conclusion that the men could not be held as contract laborers because a contract could not be proved. They everybody agreed that the law would have to be amended if laborers who come under such an agreement are to be shut out.

A SENSATIONAL MURDER.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 24.—There was a sensational murder on a Washington avenue car on the afternoon of March 23. The car reached Twenty-third street where there were three passengers, ladies, who, with the driver, were sole witnesses of the tragedy. At this point the English anglo-driver on the line, boarded the car and placing a revolver against the head of the conductor, Thomas E.
Pittman, fired three times. The driver dropped dead on the platform with his head hanging over the top step. The murderer then took the car, after compelling the driver to jump off, and drove the car with his ghastly load to the stables on Vanderbilt and Plummer avenues. He called attention to what he had done and walked north on Van Deventer avenue. He was captured an hour later. The murderer chimes Fitzgerald was too intimate with his wife.

ALL PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

New York, March 24.—The bench of deputy sheriffs and ex-Warden Keating of Jailhouse sent to jail, indicted by the grand jury for assisting in the escape of the prisoners from the city jail, were in the court of general sessions today. Each entered a plea of not guilty.

MRS. HARRISON AND PARTY.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 24.—Mrs. Harrison and party reached here safely this morning. They came in at the East Tennessee depot on the edge of the town, so were met by only a small delegation including Major Glenn, ex-Governor Bullock and others of prominence. The members of the party entered carriages and were driven to Governor Bullock's home where they were entertained at luncheon. After the luncheon they were taken to see the sights of Atlanta.

A HORRIBLE CRIME SUSPECTED.

ASTORIA, Minn., March 24.—A few days since the house of Gus Carl, near Lansing, was burned and the remains of Carl and his wife were found in the ruins. It was then thought that the couple had lost their lives by accident, but it has since been discovered that Carl had written a letter to his daughter who lived at a distance that if anything happened to her parents she would find considerable money concealed at a certain place. Search has been made and the cash found. It is thought the old man set fire to the house and then killed himself and his wife.
